

THE TIMES.

FAYETTE:

SATURDAY, MAY 22, 1841.

NOTICE.

On Monday next, 7th June, the Circuit Court commences its session in this place. As there will be persons here from all the adjoining counties, it will afford an opportunity for those of our friends who are indebted to us, and who have been awaiting an opportunity to send it, to forward the amount of their bills. We hope they will attend to it. Many have told us that they would forward our dues to us the first chance, and as this will be a good one, we hope they will not neglect it.

President LATHROP, of the State University, will deliver an address on the subject of Education to-day, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

TENNESSEE ELECTION.

Nashville papers of the 10th brings us most cheering intelligence of the result of the Congressional election in Tennessee. From them we gather the following items:

Carruthers, (W.) elected in the Nashville district by an overwhelming majority; Arnold in the 1st, Williams in the 3d, and Campbell in the 6th, (all Whigs) elected without opposition; in the 8th, Gentry, (W.) elected by a large majority; Watterson, (L. F.) is doubtless re-elected in the 9th district. Cave Johnson in the 11th district, and A. V. Brown in the 10th, (both Loco Focos) had no opposition. In the mountain district, Turney, (L. F.) opposed by Goodall, (W.) is probably re-elected.

In the 12th district, (late Crockett's,) Brown, (W.) was opposed by Pavatt, Loco Foco. The official vote of Carroll county stood:—Brown, 1,023; Pavatt 333. At Trenton, Gibson county, Brown, 184; Pavatt, 69. The remainder of the district not heard from.

"PROSCRIPTION."

The following letter which we find in the Bulletin, was written by Van Buren when he sat upon the throne at Washington. It was in reply to a letter from a late member of Congress of La. This member of Congress, wishing to subvert the interests of the corrupt administration he supported, and supposing it would be a more effective means to have men of the same political sentiments and feelings with himself, to officiate in the different offices in his State, sent a list of those he wished made victims, and also a list of those who were to "fill the dead men's shoes." Van Buren readily complied—ordered the unfortunate Whig officers to be taken to the Loco Foco Federal guillotine, and in his usual tyrannical manner, gave the order, "OFF WITH THEIR HEADS." He then returned an account of his doings in the following letter, which is copied verbatim et literatim.

"WASHINGTON, April 20, 1839.
My Dear Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of yours of the 21st ult., and of informing you that ALL THE REMOVALS AND APPOINTMENTS YOU recommended, were made on THE DAY your letter was received.

With respect,
Your friend and obedient servant,
M. VAN BUREN."

Thus, it will be seen, that these poor, unfortunate Whigs, because they happened to differ in politics with this member of Congress and Mr. Van Buren—without waiting a moment to inquire of the causes why they should be removed, or of the capability, or honesty of those recommended, by this single individual, were dragged to the guillotine "on the day the letter was received." Now, with such specimens of proscriptive before us, don't it come with rather an ill grace for editors who supported, who lauded the perpetrators of such tyrannical acts, to prate about proscriptive? But so it is, and thus we expected it would be.

"As Dr. Relfe is a brother-in-law of Senator Linn, and as some 'good natured' people might insinuate that he owed his appointment to the influence of his distinguished connexion, we take this occasion to assert the contrary, and to say upon authority which admits of no dispute, that neither Dr. Linn, nor Dr. Relfe himself, had any thing to do with the appointment, nor any knowledge of it, until after it was made. He was appointed in the latter part of General Jackson's administration, in the recess of Congress, and upon the sole recommendation of Col. Benton."

[Missouri Argus, May 1.
Of course the authority alluded to, "which admits of no dispute," is Col. Benton, and we therefore quote the following paragraph from a recent address of Maj. E. M. Ryland:

"It only remains for me to ask my friends to remember that the derogatory inference which is now ordered to be promulgated with regard to me, has originated with Thomas H. Benton, who is now, but here, and always will be a liar without remorse, and a scoundrel without heart or feeling."

PUBLIC LANDS.

The President has issued his proclamation, giving notice that a sale of public lands will take place at Danville, Ill., on Monday, the 9th of August next, within that district.

The Louisville Journal says: "A duel, which for a considerable time has been rumored to be in progress, was fought yesterday, between 10 and 11 o'clock, in the vicinity of Dr. Croghan's, about six miles above this city. The principals were Cassius M. Clay and Robert Wickliffe, Jr., both of Lexington—the former being the challenging party. They fought with pistols at the distance of thirty feet. After the first fire, in which both escaped without injury, the seconds interposed, and the affair was honorably and amicably settled. Both parties, we learn, displayed great coolness on the occasion.

"We should be much obliged to the gentleman who borrowed our last 'Boston Norton,' without our knowledge or consent if he would return it forthwith.

"An unfortunate altercation took place at the race course in St. Louis, on the 17th inst., between the proprietor, Mr. Benj. Ames, and a Mr. Daniel Brady, during which Mr. Ames stabbed the latter in such a manner that he died in about an hour. Mr. Ames was admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000.

The Southern Advocate, speaking of Mr. Guild, the recently appointed Receiver of Public Monies at Jackson, Mo., says 'a better selection, we are sure, could not have been made. It will give general satisfaction.' The Advocate is a Loco Foco concern. What it says in reference to Mr. Guild, may be relied on, as our personal acquaintance with him enables us to judge.

"HIGHLY IMPORTANT.—Letters were received in town from Col. Benton, on Sunday last. The 'Democrat,' of Wednesday, has discontinued its war upon the 'Argus,' and copies with approbation an article from that paper. 'Thus passeth away the ambition and glory of man.'

In the last Democrat we notice a communication under the signature of 'Fayette,' in which the writer attacks our friend Cady, of the Bulletin, in rather an uncouth manner. The writer takes the editor of the Bulletin to task on several subjects, such as 'slander,' 'inebriation,' &c. We are sorry that friend C., in his attempts at wit should have excited so much indignation in the bosom of 'Fayette,' he must feel himself particularly alluded to in some of Mr. C.'s remarks, we think, from the tone of his communication. We hope he is not a relative of the noted character quoted in his article, and also that he was not concerned in that singular phenomenon, of which he speaks with so much abhorrence. We would advise friend C. to be more particular hereafter in his witticisms, and let the matter rest as cool as possible, for fear 'Fayette,' may 'pin it on to him,' in a manner that will not be agreeable!

"The Post Masters at Fayette and Booneville (where the offices are worth something,) have been already removed; and no doubt the work will be carried on in every county where there is an office of any profit in the hands of a Democrat."

False: The recent appointment of a Post Master in this place, by the new administration, was to fill a vacancy occasioned by resignation. Will the Southern Advocate stand corrected?

Two hundred reformed drunkards have formed a new Temperance Society in Boston.

"From the following paragraph which we copy from the Paris Sentinel, it appears that the Editors of the Democrat and Argus, are members of the same Church; that is the reason we suppose, that Mr. Corbin did not call 'Cush' to an account for the long and bloody article which appeared in the Democrat a few weeks since. The Editor of the Sentinel, was also a member of the same Church, we learn, but was turned out for lying.

THE ARGUS, vs. THE DEMOCRAT.
The editors of the Argus and Democrat have both used many angry expressions towards each other since the commencement of their profitable quarrel. These gentlemen are both Methodists we learn. We should like to see them in a love-feast, or at the sacramental board together. By the way, is it not the duty of the preachers in charge of the St. Louis city station and Howard circuit to see to this matter? If neither the interests of the republican party of Missouri, nor the higher obligations of Christianity can arrest this shameful squabble, we hope the belligerents will be brought together as their church discipline directs, and forced to stop it."

Letters from Florida state, that "Gossettus" has just started out after Alex. Tustenuggee. He says if he cannot bring him in, the game is up. The last of the month will test it. Coa-coo-chee is also to report progress about the same time. If he backs out, a new operation will commence. So stands the affairs, and no person can tell until the time arrives." Numerous Indian fires have been discovered along the coast. Lieut. Arnold, who was seriously injured at Fort Pilatka, was much better.

"There are 9657 Distilleries in the United States, which produced 36,343,236 gallons of distilled spirits for the year 1840. The population of the United States is 17,000,000; and this quantity of spirits would furnish each man, woman and child with nearly 2 1/4-100 gallons.

NEW CENSUS.—The Madisonian gives the new Census of 1840, compiled from the records at Washington. The population of New York is 2,428,921—Pennsylvania—1,724,022—Ohio—1,519,467—Virginia—1,239,797. No other State exceeds a million. The total population of the United States now exceeds 17,100,572! A few counties are still wanting in some States to make the grand total complete, but in the four States above named, the population named is correct. We now number seventeen millions of People.

"The Washington papers, of the 8th, state that Thomas Finley is appointed postmaster at Baltimore, Md., Henry Curtis, surveyor of the revenue at Madisonville, La., vice W. Patterson, deceased, and Thomas J. Charlton, collector of the customs at Edinton, N. C., vice Robert M. Noxen.

CHARGE DE AFFAIRS TO TEXAS.—The Frankfort Commonwealth says: "The President has appointed the Hon. Joseph Eve, of Kentucky, charge to the republic of Texas. This is an important appointment, and it has been bestowed upon a firm and inflexible patriot; one who will in all stations and conditions maintain the honor of his country."

FIRE.—The newspaper establishment at Jerseyville, Jersey county, Ills. was consumed by fire on Wednesday night, the 5th inst.

VIRGINIA ERECT!!!

We are out of the woods at last, and we are happy to announce that the friends of the administration are triumphant in both branches of the Legislature, and in the Representation to Congress. The majority it is true is small, but a majority of one is as good, if not better than a thousand. We have a majority of two in the State Senate—last year tied, and we have lost, so far as heard from, eleven members of the House of Delegates, and gained nine—net loss only two. So far a majority of two in the House of Delegates, securing already a majority of four on joint ballot. We have also made a clear gain of two members of Congress. "Glory enough for one campaign." Hurrah for the untiered Mother of Presidents! We subjoin a complete list of the Members of Congress elected.

THE KENTUCKY ELECTIONS.

We have not received the official returns from any of the Districts, but we learn by letters and other sources that the following gentlemen have been elected:

1st District.—Lynn Boyd, L. F.
2nd District.—Philip Triplett, Whig, re-elected, over John H. McHenry, also Whig.
3rd District.—Joseph R. Underwood, Whig, re-elected, over J. W. Irwin, also Whig.
4th District.—Bryan Y. Owsley, Whig, over Martin Beatty, Whig, and Nathan Gaither, L. F.
5th District.—John B. Thompson, Whig, re-elected, over John Kincaid, Whig, and Thomas P. Moore, L. F.
6th District.—Willis Green, Whig, re-elected, over John L. Helm, also Whig.
7th District.—John Pope, Whig, re-elected—no opposition.
8th District.—James C. Sprigg, Whig, elected, over Wm. H. Field, also Whig.
9th District.—John White, Whig, re-elected—no opposition.
10th District.—Thomas F. Marshall, Whig, elected, over L. B. Smith, also Whig.
11th District.—L. W. Andrews, Whig, re-elected, over J. C. Mason, L. F.
12th District.—Garret Davis, Whig, re-elected—no opposition.
13th District.—William O. Butler, L. F., re-elected, over W. W. Southgate, Whig. [Commonwealth.

THE TOMB OF HARRISON.

We learn from Col. C. S. Todd, that on his way to his residence in this county, last week, he, in performance of a sacred duty, called upon the venerable widow of our deceased President. Whilst there, he was invited, by that lady, to a consultation with herself and with her only remaining son, as to the ultimate depository of the remains of her distinguished and beloved husband, the great and good President. It was determined, at this consultation, to remove the remains immediately to North Bend, to be deposited upon a beautiful and elevated natural mound, whence the monument may be seen for several miles up and down the Ohio river.

We are happy to hear this. There is and can be no more fitting depository for the remains of the illustrious patriot than the one chosen. His fame is identified with the civil and military history of the valley of the Ohio. On its beautiful banks near the centre of the three great States of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana, the theatre of his glory, let his ashes repose. There the traveler of distant ages will be refreshed by a visit to the tomb of a warrior who was never defeated; of the patriot, who died poor; and the statesman who, from the proud height of President, "fell like a star struck from its sphere, covered with glory and renown."

NEW ORLEANS MARKETS.
Wednesday, May 5th, 1841.

But little activity exists in the markets. As the warm weather advances business appears to be gradually falling off, and we do not now look for permanent animation in the general business of the city for several months.

The weather is very warm and pleasant.
Sugar—Since our last report the receipts of this article have been moderate, and sales to a fair extent have taken place at former rates, say 4 1/2 a 5 1/2; prime sugars are now becoming scarce, and are held with rather more firmness than last week.

Molasses—The supply on the levee is but small, though equal to the demand, as it is difficult to get it at this late period of the season in shipping condition. We continue our quotations of 19 a 21c, as to quality and order.

Flour—The arrivals have been good by flat boat, and the demand for shipment pretty brisk. Sales of late have taken place at former rates, say 4 1/2 a 5 1/2; from the levee at 4 1/2 a 5 1/2; by retail, from store 4 3/4 a 5 1/2 is the common price. The reduced quantities of flour have been less inquired for. We quote fine at 5 75; common, 5 3/4 a 5 1/2; extra, 5 1/2 a 5 75; Prime, 5 50 a 5 75; M. O. 5 10 a 5 25; P. O. 5 8.

Lard—The inquiry is rather limited for kegs; in bbls the demand is more extensive for shipment north. Kegs prime lard we quote 7 1/2 a 7 3/4; bbls, 7c. The stock in store is heavy.

Beef—Mess sales at retail at 11 50; Prime is more inquired for, sales at 6 50 a 6 75 for shipping; B. or thin Prime, 3 75.

Whiskey—We quote but little change this week. For rectified the price is steady at 19 a 20; common, of strong proof, will bring 20 a 21c.

Corn—We find no change in the market, therefore continue former quotations, viz: 42 a 45 cents, as the current rates on the levee. The stock continues very even, and is equal to the demand which is fair.

Oats—Sales are made at prices a little below our last figures, viz: at 3 1/2 cents. The supply is fair and finds a middling demand.
